

Maintaining your fire is important to keeping it from going out too early.

MAINTAINING

It is good to have a dedicated fire-poker stick to turn half burnt logs over and stir the cinders around. This keeps the fire from dying down too low.

*If the cinders are not hot enough, new FUEL logs will not catch,

Continue to add FUEL logs as needed in order to stoke the fire for another hour or so.